

ABOUT

Since 1984, Larkin Street Youth Services has provided a comprehensive continuum of care to homeless and runaway youth ages 12 – 24 in San Francisco.

Integrated into all of our programs are mental health, substance abuse, and HIV prevention counseling as well as access to a full spectrum of education and employment services.

TRANSITIONAL HOUSING

Our transitional housing programs are designed to help youth gain the skills they need to reach the highest level of self-sufficiency possible.

These programs offer intensive case management, psychosocial support, individual, group counseling and life skills development. Youth are expected to create individualized plans that include employment, education, life skills and health goals. Eligibility, application process, program expectations and fees vary.

Contact specific program managers for referrals and more information.
