

BAY AREA FINANCIAL LEADERS HONOR 2011 CFO OF THE YEAR AWARD WINNERS AND FINALISTS
Event raises a record $430,000 for Larkin Street Youth Services, helping homeless and at-risk youth in San Francisco

San Francisco, CA—June 2, 2011—Last night at the Sixth Annual Bay Area CFO of the Year Awards, the 2011 winners in six award categories were announced. Over 550 business leaders and executives attended the dinner and awards ceremony at the Westin St. Francis in San Francisco to honor CFOs from throughout the Bay Area. The celebration recognized this year's 18 CFO finalists and winners and honored Larry Carter, retired Senior Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Secretary of Cisco Systems, Inc., Lifetime Achievement Award winner. In addition, more than 10 CFO of the Year winners from previous years joined in celebrating their fellow CFOs.

This year's $430,000 raised for Larkin Street Youth Services brings the cumulative total to over $2.2 million since the first CFO of the Year event in 2006. The funds support Larkin Street, which for 27 years has served homeless and at-risk youth in San Francisco through its comprehensive programs in outreach, housing, medical and social services, education, and job assistance.

"I am honored to receive this award and be recognized alongside Bay Area financial leaders and colleagues," said Larry Carter, Lifetime Achievement Winner. "I am particularly proud to participate in an event that supports the meaningful work that Larkin Street Youth Services provides in serving homeless and at-risk youth in the local community."
